AGENT'S REPORT

Flu Clinics – The town wide flu clinic was held this past Saturday; twenty-eight vaccinations were given by one VNA nurse and one town nurse. Since the retirement of Maureen Sendrowski, there have been issues with the VNA; they were focused mostly on the cost per vaccination rather than the per hour cost for nurses as was always done in the past. Doug is gathering information on how it is handled in other towns and will report back. A letter was received today from the VNA stating that they will no longer provide communicable disease monitoring to communities; the MAVEN is no longer their focus. The board will have to decide how this will be handled in the future. The senior flu clinic will be held Tuesday, November 3rd at the Town House from 9-11AM.

Mosquito Control – Spraying will end after the first hard frost. They will continue to test waterways in the winter. Prior to town meeting, information will be received as to whether the town wants to continue in the program along with the cost to participate.

Tobacco – The date will be announced when agreed upon by board members.

There was another rooster complaint at the same location as in August; the owner has made arrangements to remove them. Dennis is confident the matter will be taken care of amicably as in the past.
